

Ray McKinley To Play Wistaria Dance

Famous Drum Player, Band Initiate Weekend Activities

The best all-around dance band in America, according to Look and Down Beat magazines, Ray McKinley and his orchestra will play at the Wistaria Ball on Friday evening, May 1 at the Ritz ballroom.

A formal affair, the Wistaria Ball opens the Wistaria Weekend festivities which will feature lunch, sports activities and entertainment for students and returning alumni on Saturday and highlighted by the Wistaria Pageant and the formal dedication of Alumni Hall on Sunday, May 3.

Ray McKinley, one of the world's greatest drummers, heads a collection of some of the nation's outstanding musicians and features the brilliant arranging skills of Eddie Sauter and Deane Kincaide, two of the industry's foremost creative artists. Sauter won the Metronome Magazine poll for the arrangers last year for the second consecutive year.

An outspoken advocate of the music-for-the masses school, McKinley's major gripe about most dance orchestras is that they all sound alike. Kincaide and Sauter have worked out a versatile type of presentation and style that runs the gamut from eight-to-the-bar to the most progressive jazz.

Three million recording fans can't be wrong and that many people have purchased Ray's Victor platters such as "Civilization," "Red Silk Stockings," "You Came A Long Way From St. Louis," "Arizay" and other smash waxings that have made McKinley a byword on the stage and radio.

Mr. Hiram Sibley Speaks At Nurses' First Convo.

The College of Nursing will present its first Convocation at the University of Bridgeport entitled: "Could You Pay a Hospital Bill Tomorrow?" on April 21 at 10 A. M. in the Carlson Lecture Hall.

The guest speaker will be Mr. Hiram Sibley, Executive Director of the Connecticut Hospital Association. Mr. Sibley will discuss the development of prepaid medical health plans available to the public today.

Spiritual Foundation Requisite Emphasized by Judge Mellitz

"Our actions revolve around our everyday spiritual and moral conduct," said Samuel Mellitz, Superior court judge before more than 100 members and friends of the Sociology Colloquium and the Political Relations Forum at their annual banquet held at the Stratfield hotel on Monday.

Colloquium awards presented to members of the community, University family and students who have contributed to the advancement of the organization went to President Halsey, Ernest Capozzi, Attorney; Harvey Gochros and Tony Tomanio.

PRF awards presented to members of the University family, community and students who exemplified the principles of political science and have done most to promote the objectives of the group went to V. P. Littlefield; Phillip R. Merryman, WICC; and Al Munrow.

Fitch Hi-School Winner of Journalism Workshop Award for Best Paper

Robert E. Fitch High School's "Scarlet Tanager," Groton, won the Pi Delta Epsilon award for having the best all-around paper at the annual UB Journalism Workshop last Saturday.

Carl E. Lindstrom, managing editor of the Hartford Times, told the assembled students, "The power of the press is not in the press, it is in having access to information."

Among the other notables that contributed materially to the success of the Workshop were Alfred F. Bennett, makeup editor of the Bridgeport Post; Dulcie Ponom, editorial assistant for "Living for Young Homemakers" magazine; Bob Stock, Bridgeport Post; and many others including members of Pi Delta Epsilon and The Scribe.

Frosh Plan Ball And GALS PAY

High Noon, Saturday, all menless women and womenless men will be out running for their lives as the official open season on men starts here at the UB campus.

Any leg weary male caught will be forced to attend the Sadie Hawkins' Day dance on April 25 at an (ugh, chuckle!!) spot to be named soon.

The highlight of the hoedown will be the crowning of UB's own Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae.

Victorious women will be allowed to purchase tickets from any member of the Freshmen Dance committee after April 20. Price for the tickets is $1 per couple and may be purchased in both the Alumni Hall Snack Bar or Marina Hall.

The affair will feature both square and round dancing.

Senior Weekend Real Grand Picnic & Prom

Final plans are now being completed for the Class of '53 Senior Weekend. Arrangements call for a prom, May 29; banquet, May 30 and picnic, May 31. The locations for the prom and picnic have not been settled but the banquet has been scheduled for the Hotel Barnum.

The approximate cost for the entire weekend is estimated to run from $11.50 to $16.50. Deposits may be left at Mr. Brewer's office or with Robert Plotnick.

Rita (Gann) Morley Appears At Chest Carnival Saturday

By Dick Handler

Rita (Gann) Morley, famed on TV as the Coty Girl, will be the feature attraction on the midway of UB's Campus Chest Carnival this Saturday afternoon and evening on the Alumni Hall grounds.

COTY GIRL - Rita (Gann) Morley, famed TV Coty Girl, will be guest star at the Campus Chest Carnival Saturday. Representing the State of Connecticut is A. Edward Sandula, Deputy State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.

Rita, now deep in rehearsals for her own television show in New York, will come to Bridgeport to head the list of big names that will be at the Campus Chest Carnival.

Making her appearance at the 7:30 P. M. show Saturday evening, Rita will bring with her a male television star as her escort. As yet, the name of this star has not been revealed.

The Campus Chest Carnival, also known as the Barnumian Independence Day Celebration, will be held on the grounds of Alumni Hall from 2 P. M. Saturday afternoon until that evening.

At 7:30 P. M., the main entertainment will begin. At this show Rita and an ambassador from the City of Bridgeport, and A. Edward Sandula, Deputy State Motor Vehicle Commission, will appear.

Sandula will be here in the official capacity of the State of Connecticut and Governor John Lodge.

Rita, who is not only a model but an accomplished artist, has not revealed just what she will do. The committee is unable to guess because her talents cover a broad area: singer, pianist, actress and composer.

The tents for the carnival were on their way up yesterday. The last tent won't be up until late Saturday morning. Organizations

Speech Contest Finals Held Tonight In City Auditorium

Six students will participate in the finals of the UB annual public speaking contest which will be held tonight at 8 P. M. at the Burroughs Library Lecture Hall.

Gilbert Hellwig, Lucy Keegan, Stephen Onofrey, Arthur Woerheide, Daniel Leeson and Thomas Muldoon will vie for the first prize of an Underwood Portable typewriter and other handsome prizes.

The contest's judges will be the Rev. William Alderson, pastor of the First Methodist Church; Mr. William Hawkins, secretary of the retail Division of the Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Nicholas di Massino, former assistant professor of Speech at the University.

The semi-finals of the contest were held in March and the judges for the affair were Dr. John Rastias, College of Arts and Science; Mr. Chauncey L. Fish, of the College of Education; and Mr. Frank Wright, director of Placement at the University.

The speech contest had its opening rounds in the University classrooms where both students of speech as well as other interested students spoke on a topic of their own choosing from eight to ten minutes.

The first UB speech contest held at the downtown library was held in 1950-51.

UB Debaters Argue FEPC

West Point will provide the opposition for a busy University Debating team tomorrow when Harvey Seltzer, Ron Brandenburg, Mary Royak and Phil Clark travel to the Point to take on the cadets.

The subject of the debate will be the national collegiate topic, "Resolved: That the Congress of the United States should enact a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Law."

The West Point debate climaxes a busy week. On Monday, Jim Halsey, Jr., Vic Munie, Mary Royak and Phil Clark debated the national topic before the local Rotary club and on Tuesday the UB debaters drew even with Albertus Magnus.

UB Students To 'Run' Bpt. For One Day

Counting ballots cast in yesterday's Bridgeport Day elections is now going in the chambers of the Political Relations Forum. The winner of the mayoral election will take over Jasper McLevy's office on April 28.

Eight councilmen will also be elected to act as the Common Council. Before April 28, the new mayor and the councilmen will meet in joint session to appoint students to fill the offices of police chief, fire chief, health officer, city attorney, director of public works and city engineer.

Student members of the election committee include Ed Kovac, Stan Labak and Bob Plotnick.

IN MEMORY OF ROBERT "MAC" MCCARTHY

The entire University of Bridgeport family mourns and will remember "Mac" - Advisor - Guardian - Friend.

Charity Is Rewarded

This is the right way! Dig down UB for the Barnumanian Holiday gives each and every one of you the opportunity to show your spirit of CHARITY.

On Saturday the UB campus will become a mid-way during the great Barnumanian Celebration. It will be bigger and better than ever before! If only Barnum could be here to see it!

Campus Chest, collaborating with other charitably minded organizations, has been preparing this gala affair for months. Twenty-five booths of skill and fun will be erected for you, students, in an effort to show the surrounding area that we, as a campus community, realize the needs of charities.

Dig deep UB, join the crowd and rush with them to the Great Barnumanian Mid-way on Saturday. CHARITY is always rewarded.

Journalism Workshop Success

Hearty congratulations are extended to Pi Delta Epsilon, the Journalism Department, and incidentally, the Scribe.

This year's Journalism Workshop was the most impressive and instructive session ever held. We commend you all on your earnest effort and resulting success.

Hours of preparations went into the scheduling of the agenda for the all-day affair held last Saturday. Letters were sent to such publications as Glamour Magazine, The Bridgeport Post, The Bridgeport Herald and the General Electric paper, with this effect.

Successful men and women in the field answered the call and gave to the future journalists informative material which served to give the school journalists a firm journalism vocation.

By taking part in the workshop the high school editors and members of their staffs were able to take with them valued information and fundamental principles about the modern newspaper. Copy reading, features, editorial writing and general make-up were impressively presented to these newcomers by the representatives of various publications in conjunction with members of the sponsoring organizations.

The expressions on the faces of the departing guests indicated that the Journalism Workshop of 1953 was a success. The SCRIBE wants to thank all those who helped make it so.

Campus Musician Writes About His 'Lost Love'

by Myra Seide

"Lost Love," an unpublished, minor-keyed ballad is on the desk of Mitch Miller, noted arranger and composer. The future of this tender ballad is unknown to all of us at UB. Will it be a hit, or, like so many other efforts of young composers, will it be forgotten?

Hailing from Bogota, New Jersey, 24-year old Carlo (Rocky) Rocamato, Music major, who dorms at Marina Hall, is the author of this ballad. Rocky, who sells sandwiches (and songs upon occasion) every night in the dormitories admits, "I never knew I could write songs; I guess the sentiment just has to hit you!"

Rocky, a Marine Corps vet, began to study music last year, took singing lessons for a short while and decided recently to enter the field of music, either teaching or composing.

All who have heard the song agree "Lost Love" has a "haunting melody and beautiful lyrics."

"Lost Love is just the beginning for me," Rocky said, "I hope to write lots more like it."

Campus Chest Carnival

will begin decorating their booths Saturday morning for the 2 P. M. opening.

The King and Queen of Barnumania have already been chosen and will be presented at the show Saturday evening. True to the tradition of Barnumania, the couple won't know they have been chosen until Saturday evening.

Admission to the grounds will be by paying 25c to the treasury of the Kingdom of Barnumania to cover the cost of printing the citizenship papers. Admission to the booths will be on an individual basis.

Groups sponsoring booths or entertainment will be in competition for three prizes:

1. The most attractively decorated booth.
2. That booth which brings in the most money.
3. That booth with the most unusual gimmick.

Alpha Phi Omega has turned down a bid to compete for prizes and will instead, become the official Army of the Kingdom of Barnumania for duty policing the area. They will be assisted by campus and Bridgeport city police.

Organizations which have already signified that they will participate in the carnival are:

Alpha Phi Omega, Pi Omega Chi, Sigma Phi Alpha, Sigma Lambda Chi, Theta Sigma, Alpha Delta Omega, Delta Epsilon Beta, Kappa Beta Rho, Beta Gamma, Theta Epsilon, Wistaria Hall, Seaside Hall, Linden Hall, Southport Hall, Industrial Design Society and the Biology Club.

Some of the booths are: Golf chipping, sideshow, miniature golf, fishing, baseball, darts, ring tossing, penny pitching, water pistol targetry, sponge throwing arcade and an art exhibition.

It isn't often ALPHA to ZETA gets written by a newly initiated pledge! Chalk this week's column up to a lucky break for this sister — and, another Greek's generosity!

Heartell SIGMA LAMBDA

CHI's annual dance held last Friday night at Glorieta Manor, with its "I'll Remember April" theme, was a huge success. Among the brothers on campus, especially for the occasion were Bernie (Boogie) Eisenberg and Dick Bromberg, who the Navy supposedly gave a special leave, in order that he be able to join his brothers in the festivities. . . George Rahnias, it is rumored, may get a chance to go overseas as a Greek interpreter for the army. . . (In keeping with this column, don't ya' think??)

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. William Allen on the birth of their new daughter. ADO claims she gets first chance to start a sister sorority. . . (Mr. Allen serves as advisor.)

Recently initiated brothers include Dennis Schute, Tom Moore, Lou Sagay, Joe Brennan, Tom Sullivan, Ted Octaviano, Ralph Scofield, Ken Berham and Ken Sanckay. . . The boys went en masse to BG's "Naughty Twenties," held at Lenny's, March 27 and to Bill Miller's Riviera, Sunday.

PI OMEGA CHI busy planning big doings to take place over Wistaria Weekend. Among the plans are a hayride, cocktail parties, a picnic, "humitified type." Good news department . . . Brother Syd Litwak will return to the POC fold next week. . . Welcome back!

ALPHA PHI OMEGA is sending Bob Paul, Larry Bluth, Jerry Maurer, Irv Sobolov, Dick Ellis, Jim Kuester, Marv Kushnik, Lenny Crystal and Charles Haywood to a national convention in Springfield.

SIGMA PHI ALPHA held a spaghetti party at Cellin's Restaurant, Saturday night. New officers are John Rossignol, president; Jim Bodnar, veep; Al Lepow, recording secretary; Howie Marks, treasurer; Dick Aiello, alumni secretary; Dick Probst, corresponding secretary and Jim Forti, sergeant-at-arms.

ALPHA GAMMA PHI and THETA SIGMA held their joint beer party, (a stag) last Saturday night at Redman's in Fairfield. By the way, several AGP's are still pledging.

THETA EPSILON rumors it may have a closed "get-together" shortly. New members include Sheila Haffner, Jackie McCue, Gloria Hirschberg, Gerry Bennett, Jean Otfinowski, Pat Suich, Judy Feller, Marilyn Wilkinson, Marcia Pedin, Ruth Beckman, Cissy Ross, Audrey Friedman, Babs Julian, Shirley Jones, Gloria Kulski, Nancy Kallop and Miriam Mixer.

BETA GAMMA's new sisters are Sue Rosner, Pat Craig, Mary Lou Schneider, Lorraine Curley, Peggy McMahon, Ann Merrill, Barbara Osborn, Violet Vavrek, Eunice Pfalzgraf, Lucy Keegan, Connie Marino, Vita Pavia, Joan Carlson, Ida Saumell, Bev Lockwood, Bette Chornyak, Donna Di Prinio, Sandy Schnare, Eileen Daly, Pat Higgenson, Barbara Blitzer and Myra Seide.

KAPPA BETA RHO held a party a few weeks ago, with members and 12 alumni attending. The boys hit a new record — they were the first fraternity to have a "dave" play at a closed party. Chuck Elveckv and Dave Rodgers took off for Washington D.

C. Thursday, April 1 saw a stag party for the alumni, members and friends of KBR, even this reporter couldn't get the scoop where . . . Dave Rodgers adds it was held at the "KBR Clubhouse. . . ." (Anybody know where 'tis? Your guess is as good as mine.)

Vote For Queen Today, Tomorrow

Nominations for the 1953 Wistaria Queen closed early yesterday and the qualifications for the candidates were checked early this morning. Voting will be held today and tomorrow.

The title "Wistaria Queen" has been heralded as UB's highest honor to a co-ed and has been carried as a tradition since 1948.

Her Highness will be chosen by popular student vote to be held starting at 10 A. M. this morning with the polls closing at 3:30 in Alumni Hall and reopening at the Marina Dining Hall at 5:20. The same voting hours will be repeated tomorrow. The Social Activities Committee has set up "charm, beauty and all around popularity" as the criteria for selection.

This year's Queen will be announced and presented at the Wistaria Ball, May 1 and will be crowned by last year's Queen, Dorothy Silverman '52, at the Wistaria Pageant two days later. Elaine Garber, a senior, 1951 Queen will also be present at the coronation.

The elections sub-committee of the Social Activities Committee consists of Ronald Brandenberg, Carl Dickman and Irnie Thropp. Robert Plotnick is chairman of the Social Activities Committee.

Kondratovich Very Hopeful; Harriers In Fine Condition

Win Over NH Gives Golfers Eight in Row

The University of Bridgeport Golf Team had to win a round from Ol'e Jupe Pluvius before they were able to come home the victors by a 7-2 score against New Haven State Teachers College yesterday in the initial match of the campaign at Fairchild Wheeler Park.

High winds and wet grounds didn't stop Coach Al Sherman's charges from making it eight straight victories in a winning streak that stretches from April 17 of last year.

Herb Vines and Mike Valacin along with Al Satz and Walt Leveen of UB, bested their opponents in all events. Phil Chamberlain starred for the losers by defeating Fred Mills.

The scheduled opener of the season against Manhattan was washed out by inclement weather last Tuesday; again on Friday activity had to be halted after the ninth hole in a deadlocked contest with Fairleigh-Dickinson because of rain and darkness.

The schedule for the remainder of the season which will be highlighted by the Metropolitan Tournament on May 7 follows: Apr. 16, Fairfield University, Away; Apr. 17, White Plains Tech, Away; Apr. 20, Iona, Away; Apr. 23, Seton Hall, Away; May 1, Fairfield University, Home; May 5, Iona, Home; May 13, White Plains Tech, Home; May 15, New Haven State Teachers, Away.

Fair skies have finally blessed the University of Bridgeport track team squad and Coach Walt Kondratovich has been putting them through a lively pace for the past week.

With only six days remaining before the 1953 inaugural meet, against New Britain State Teachers College at the Hardware City, the "Kaymen" have been drilled to a fever pitch in an all out effort to bring new laurels to the UB cindersmen.

For the first time in the school's short track history, the field men look to be in excellent shape. George Cucak, one of the top newcomers, has been making excellent progress in the javelin and discus, heaving the spear close to 135 feet and the disk well over 100 in practice sessions. Also showing steady improvement are veterans Phil DuBruiel, Sand Mehrtor and freshman Fred Klein, a former Roger Ludlow ace.

In the shot-put event, DuBruiel, Bob Paul and Frank "Bronco" Sklare appear to be in good form. The latter two could be of great help this season backing up "mighty Phil", last year's one man track team.

The high jump and broad jump seem pretty well set with DuBruiel and Mehrtor leading the parade and John Brennan showing marked improvement.

He isn't making any predictions, but Kondratovich has high hopes for this year's squad as the turnout of over 40 candidates is the largest in the four year history of the sport. Although the team is made up mainly of newcomers Kay is looking forward to bettering last year's 1-4 mark and turning in a winning season.

May 5 Deadline Set for Notice of Withdrawal

Students who do not plan on returning to the University next semester must notify the Office of Student Personnel, in person, before Tuesday, May 5 in order to receive their reservation deposit refund.

The deposit is refunded only to students who have registered and attended classes for at least fifteen days and will not be refunded if the student fails to give official notification of his intention to withdraw on or before thirty days prior to the end of the current semester.

IM Softball Opens Monday

Spring intramurals swing into high gear Monday as the 1953 softball season gets underway. Nine teams have registered for the campaign, including defending champions Sigma Phi Alpha.

Subdivided into two leagues designated "A" and "B", each team will play every other team in its own league twice. The "A" league will play a total of six games apiece while division "B" teams will have eight contests each.

Games will be played four days a week on fields No. 1 and No. 2 at Went Field and No. 4 and No. 10 at Seaside Park. Consult the bulletin boards for field assignments.

The league will run three weeks, with the playoffs being staged the second week in May. The top two teams in each league will participate in the playoffs.

The first week's schedule is as follows: Mon. 5 vs 6; 7 vs 8; Tues. 1 vs 3; 2 vs 4; 5 vs 9; 6 vs 8; Wed. 5 vs 7; 6 vs 9; Thur. 1 vs 2; 3 vs 4; 5 vs 8; 6 vs 7.

Legend: 1-SPA, 2-POC, 3-KBR, 4-APO, 5-AGP, 6-TS, 7-Park Hall, 8-ADO, 9-DEB.

Council Raises Activity Fee; Univ. Withholds Approval Pending Poll

The Student Activity Season fee has been raised from six to eight dollars per semester, effective next September (1953) by action of Student Council on March 31.

Final ratification by the University administration has been withheld, however, pending either a student referendum or a personal opinion poll conducted on campus.

Atomic Explosion Film at CD Convo Tuesday, 4 P.M.

Chris Wesche, Civilian Defense head for the City of Bridgeport, will speak on "Civilian Defense and You" at a student convocation Tuesday at 4 P. M. in T-101.

Wesche will also show a film of the recent atomic explosions at Nevada, if delivery of the films, is made before Tuesday. The films have just been printed and are expected to arrive in time for the convocation.

The atomic explosions over Hiroshima and Nagasaki will be shown if the Nevada films does not arrive. Convocation credit will be extended to students.

INTERESTING FIGURE DEPARTMENT — Recent research has dug up many interesting figures, including some very enlightening, if somewhat embarrassing marks. For instance, basketball attendance last season totaled 5,275, or an average attendance of 406 people per game for 13 home contests. This figure, although the second highest total attendance since the school became a university, is still extremely low.

Football took an awful beating at the gate during the 1952 campaign. Only a total of 4,910 people paid their way (including student activity tickets) into five games, a shocking average of 982 per contest. Contrast this with 1948 when 18,627 parted with the green stuff. It's also the first time that the average has ever fallen below 1,000. If the present trend keeps up, football cannot possibly survive as a collegiate sport here... the financial strain is too great.

ANALYSIS — Basketball about pays its own way, give or take a few dollars and is financially a sound investment. Football, however, has been a strain on the athletic budget for the past three seasons, and especially the most recent one. Therefore, the student body should resolve to put both sports on sound footing, or else see the gridiron sport go the way of baseball, soccer, swimming and tennis. Football must draw about 2,000 per game and basketball should top 500; to support themselves. The 1953 gridiron schedule will be the telling figure, either we want the sport or not.

OTHER FIGURES — Basketball wise, which do not reflect such gloom, never-the-less prove interesting. For instance, how many people know which school has beaten Bridgeport the most times since 1947? What was the lowest amount of points ever scored by a Purple and White team? Which team has fallen prey to the Knights more often than any other? Here are all the answers... Lowest score by a UB team - 37 points against Lowell Textile, 1948-49... Highest amount of points scored by the Seaside crew - 113 against Pratt this past season.

Lowest score by an opponent - 23, by St. Basil's College, 1948-49... Highest score by an opponent - 88, Fairfield University, during 1951-52 season... Team UB has beaten the most - Hillyer College, ten times in eleven contests... School that dropped us more than any other - Arnold College, seven out of 13 games... Oldest opponent in amount of games - Arnold College, 13... Only three schools that were on our original university schedule in 1947 remain on the 1953-54 slate, Arnold, New Haven and Hillyer... Bridgeport has played in 143 intercollegiate contests since 1947, winning 88 and dropping 55 for a mark of .615.

PREDICTION DEPARTMENT — Professor William T. De Siero's fencing team will catch on full blast and will be instituted as a recognized varsity sport in less than one year... Next season will see the administration relent slightly and re-instate either baseball, swimming or tennis, and possibly all three sports... Construction on the new gymnasium will begin before the end of 1954 and will be unveiled for 1955-56 basketball season... Track team will win three of its meets this year... Sigma Phi Alpha will successfully defend their softball and intramural championships... Brooklyn Dodgers will cop the National League pennant and the world series... Football team will about split even in 1953 schedule.

ALONG PARK PLACE

By Ron Gold

Leo Kney of Marina Hall has been looking real 'bushed and beat' as of late. Why? Only because of some mighty research he's been indulging in.

Seems that after weeks of hard work, Leo has come up with the amazing fact that Bop had its start in the United States when Teddy Roosevelt said, "Man, dig that Panama Canal."

Congratulations to Mary Ann Patrizzi on being chosen the Princess of POU at their dance a few weeks back. Chet Pato was her Prince that night. Sorry I didn't mention this before.

Tryouts were held for the Wistarian Pageant last week. If anyone else wishes to participate, contact Mr. "D".

Drop into Hall Settlement Home some Wednesday night and watch Jerry Winter coaching the kids in the fine art of self-defense.

All kinds of elections coming up in the near future. Be thinking of your choice for Wistaria Queen, Mayor and Student Council representatives.

Fran Palazzio received a birthday cake in the Snack Bar last week from some of her friends. Among the well wishers were Joan Beck, Roger Rubin and George Sikorsky.

Long, lean Fred Mills is hitting a mighty long ball for the golf team these days. Fred claims that if he gets any better, he will have to start counting all those strokes he manages to forget now.

It's always nice to hear about UB romances. Just got word that Eunice Heller of Wistaria Hall is engaged to former A to Z writer, Manny Sternschein. Manny is up in Boston now, doing grad work.

"Along Park Place" UB's radio show, featuring Bob Paul, has changed its location on the clock. It's now heard Thursday nights from 10:15 till 10:30 over WNAB. Be sure to listen, it's a real fine show.

WARNING. . . . All you youngsters better be careful come April 25th. That's Sadie Hawkins Day and all the frustrated females on campus will be in their glory.

Seaside Hall had their closed Dorm Party last Saturday night. The theme was "Up in Central Park."

Better get your date for the big Weekend before it's too late.

And speaking of late . . . it is . . . so as I look out the SCRIBE window and morning enters . . . I exit . . .

Rotarians Make Grants Available

The New Haven Rotary Club has made several scholarships available to students living in New Haven, West Haven, East Haven, North Haven, Hamden, Bethany, Woodbridge and Orange.

One of these awards will be the Owen A. Norton scholarship.

Applications must be filed with the administration office before May 1.

Marines Name Rudolph and Wicke As Platoon Leaders of the Future

Two UB students, Richard Rudolph and Charles Wicke, have qualified for the Marine Corps' Platoon Leaders Class it has been announced by the Marine Procurement Officer in New York City.

Both students applied for acceptance into the class when the marine recruiting officers appeared on campus in March. Rudolph and Wicke will attend the first of two six-week summer training periods at Quantico, Va. and upon graduation from UB, will be commissioned as Second Lieutenants and retained on active duty for two years.

Dr. M. Milhauser To Read Papers

Dr. Milton Milhauser will present two short papers to the University of Bridgeport Literary group in Bishop Hall, Friday, April 17 at 8 P. M.

Dr. Milhauser, a member of the Literary Colloquium, will speak on "Impulse and Structure in Victorian Literature" and "Tennyson — Image and Artifice." He has also written a characterization of Walter Pater which appeared in the March issue of the Journal of Aesthetics.

"Walter Pater and the Flux" said Milhauser, gives an insight to Pater's personal sensitiveness and weakness with an evaluation of the impact of Darwinian Evolution upon his life.

Leeson, Matt Represent UB at NSA Conference

UB will be represented at the New England All-College Conference by two students, Danny Leeson and Chick Matt, who will attend the meetings to be held at Boston University, April 24, 25. This year's theme will be "The Arts in America; An Evaluation." Fifty-two colleges will participate.

New Knights Are Crowned

The Knights of Thunder, honorary alumni dramatic fraternity, inducted 13 new members on March 28, including four honorary members.

The new 'Knights' include: Peter Branard, John Breithaupt, John Schaffner, Jane Goldsmith, Marlene Fanta, Richard Probst, Billie Jane Elson, Dolores Ludka, Mary Lou Donahue, Leonore Bifield, Robert Schropshire, Marge Ciserio, Robert Middlemass and Anne Yerontakis. Honorary members include: Marguerite Scott, Adeline Meath, Stephen Martin, Harry Ahlberg and Charles Rasmussen.

The new members were chosen for their outstanding participation in university productions through past years. The initiation ceremony was followed by a cocktail party and a dinner held at the Actors Colony Inn.

Mr. Huston Talks; Engineers Listen

Mr. John C. Huston representing the Bridgeport Gas Light Co. will speak to UB students majoring in Engineering at a group meeting in T-214 on Tuesday, April 21 at 10 A. M.

Also on April 21 at 10 A. M. in Central Annex Mr. J. Powers of the Producto Machine Co. will conduct a group meeting for those UB students interested in sales training for that company.

Those wishing individual interviews may make appointments in the respective group meeting rooms. Both interviews will be in Howland Hall after the group meetings.

Mr. Frank Wright announced today that lack of interest was responsible for Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. cancelling their scheduled visit to UB. However, any student majoring in accounting interested in positions with this company should contact the Placement Office as soon as possible.

UBites Apathetic About Placement

Is the placement program offered by UB being seriously considered by enough students?

University of Bridgeport students have not been taking full advantage of this specialized service offered by its Placement Service Department, said Mr. Frank Wright, Placement Director. This department, he continued, is now fully equipped to find employment for any UB student. Contacts have been made with most of the larger firms dealing in merchandise, service or selling.

Education Class to Visit State Employment Service

The Education 407 class, taught by Mr. Floyd Brewer, will make a field trip on March 25, when they visit the Connecticut State Employment Service. This group went to the Community Advisory Center earlier this semester.
